

A 2 DAY ADVANCED WORKSHOP FOR CLINICAL RESEARCH COORDINATORS New Delhi–9th–10th October 2010 (Saturday & Sunday)

Why we felt the need of this workshop

Clinical Research Coordinators play a key role in the implementation of clinical trials; extending far beyond mere data collection and administrative support and directly contribute to the gathering of good quality data.

In line with these responsibility; investigators and sponsor should take responsibility to ensure that CRCs have adequate training in area that we have highlighted.

There is a lot of expectation from this position so there is an immense need to give the right training & address their issues and provide them solutions for day to day problems faced during work.

Introduction
